

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through their achievements thus far in life as students; and

Whereas, Cody Zuroweste of Auxvasse has attained considerable distinction as a senior at North Callaway County R-I High School; and

Whereas, on March 4, 2005, Cody Zuroweste enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he was named as a Tech-Prep Student of the Year by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education; and

Whereas, Cody Zuroweste earned Tech-Prep Student of the Year in light of his skills in the field of welding; and

Whereas, the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education recognizes students on the basis of their commitment to career and technical education, academic achievement, involvement in school or community activities, leadership abilities, and participation in student organizations related to career and technical education; and

Whereas, "tech-prep" focuses on academic and career education to prepare young people for postsecondary training in a technical or career field; and

Whereas, all tech-prep students take part in "2+2" programs in which they take career-oriented classes during the eleventh and twelfth grades and then move directly into related studies at a community college, a technical school, or an apprenticeship program; and

Whereas, Cody Zuroweste is the son of Kevin and Lori Zuroweste who also are justifiably proud of his garnering the title of 2005 District Welding Champion:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Cody Zuroweste as a 2005 Tech-Prep Student of the Year by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Cody Zuroweste of Auxvasse, Missouri.
